Human resources coordinator

LocationSanaa, Yemen
SectorNon Profit
ExperienceMid Career
PostedJun 25
Location TypeOnsite

Position description

For more than 40 years, Médecins du Monde (MdM), a campaigning medical organisation committed to international solidarity, has been caring for the most vulnerable populations here and abroad. It has continued to bear witness to obstacles that exist in accessing healthcare and has secured sustainable improvements in health-for-all policies.

Those working for this independent organisation do not solely dispense care and treatment but condemn violations of human dignity and rights and fight to improve matters for populations living in precarious situations.

MdM France currently works in 30 countries across all continents to facilitate access to healthcare through 6 political battles:

- Sexual and Reproductive Health Rights
- Migration, Exile, Human Rights and Health
- Harm Reduction
- Environment and Health
- Humanitarian Space
- Healthcare systems and rights

MdM in Yemen

Médecins du Monde France operates in Yemen to deliver essential primary health care and mental health and psychosocial support (MHPSS) services to vulnerable populations affected by prolonged conflict, displacement, and economic deterioration.

The operational environment in Yemen is characterised by significant access challenges. Humanitarian activities are subject to administrative constraints, evolving approval procedures, movement restrictions, and varying requirements imposed by different authorities. Security risks, bureaucratic delays, and sudden changes in regulations can directly impact program implementation, staff mobility, and supply chains. Maintaining humanitarian access requires continuous negotiation, coordination with authorities, and strict compliance with national regulations.

MdM France operates through three offices: Sana'a (coordination office), Aden, and Marib. Each location presents distinct operational dynamics and access considerations. Ensuring harmonised procedures and consistent program quality across these bases requires strong coordination, proactive risk analysis, and adaptive planning.

In this context, the program coordinator plays a key role in anticipating access-related risks, supporting contingency planning, and ensuring that programs remain flexible, compliant, and responsive to the evolving humanitarian situation.

About the role

Your responsibilities include defining, adapting, planning, and overseeing the implementation of the mission's human resources framework, including internal procedures and policies, compensation and benefits, talent management, staff discipline, career development and learning, as well as team building, while ensuring alignment with the local context, applicable legislation, and MdM policies and values.

What you'll do

- Define and implement HR strategy, workforce planning, and budgeting in coordination with leadership
- Maintain organizational structure and contribute to HR components in project proposals
- Ensure accurate HR administration, including employee records, databases, payroll, and reporting to HQ
- Implement and monitor salary structures and national staff compensation policies
- Recruit, manage, and develop the HR team, including performance reviews and capacity building initiatives
- Develop, update, and enforce HR policies in line with local legislation and organizational values
- Oversee recruitment processes, labour market analysis, and support conflict resolution procedures
- Strengthen HR capacity through field visits, training programs, and technical support across the mission
- Support the implementation of PSEA policies, including awareness, reporting mechanisms, and prevention actions
- Ensure full compliance with local labour, tax, and immigration laws, and manage legal documentation
- Oversee expatriate HR processes, including visas, housing, and administrative follow-up

- Prepare HR reports, contribute to donor reporting, and coordinate with external HR stakeholders

Whom you will work with?

- You are reporting to the deputy general coordinator for support services
- You have a functional link with the HR advisor at HQ
- You directly supervise a coordination team composed of 1 HR advisor, 2 HR assistants, and 1 liaison officer
- You provide functional supervision to field teams, including 1 admin officer and 1 HR assistant.

You are the right match if you fit to the following selection criteria:

- Degree in HR, Management, or a related field
- Minimum 5 years of relevant experience, including 3 years in a similar position in the humanitarian sector
- Experience in complex or conflict-affected environments is an asset

Technical skills

- Strong HR management expertise (policies, procedures, legal framework)
- Budget and payroll management
- Recruitment, training, and team management

Soft skills

- Leadership and decision-making
- Adaptability and resilience in challenging environments
- Strong interpersonal and cross-cultural communication skills

IT & Languages

- Proficiency in Microsoft Office
- Fluent in English; Arabic and/or French are assets

This role may not suit you if you:

- Are not aligned with MdM’s values
