It brings together compassionate professionals from diverse backgrounds to provide evidence-based care across all levels of treatment.

About the Role: The Admissions Coordinator is responsible for managing the admissions process for prospective and returning clients, families, and referral sources. This role ensures a compassionate and responsive experience that facilitates timely access to clinically appropriate care. It contributes by guiding individuals through the admissions journey, reducing barriers to treatment, and supporting client readiness.

Responsibilities:

- Serve as the primary contact for prospective clients, families, and referral sources via multiple communication channels.
- Guide clients and families through all stages of the admissions process with professionalism and responsiveness.
- Conduct pre-admission screenings and share recommended levels of care as determined clinically.
- Manage objections, assess client readiness, and encourage treatment pursuit.
- Maintain conversion rates and registration targets by tailoring communication.
- Provide accurate information on treatment programs and admissions procedures.
- Share community resources when care access is not possible.
- Coordinate and schedule pre-admission appointments.
- Secure admission dates and ensure timely placement across levels of care.
- Communicate confirmed admissions internally.
- Provide pre-admission materials and insurance benefit quotes.
- Conduct routine follow-ups.
- Support census goals by facilitating timely admissions and monitoring program capacity.
- Track client progression and update internal systems accurately.
- Escalate admission or placement issues as required.
- Maintain detailed documentation in CRM, EHR, and ensure compliance with quality and privacy standards.
- Build and maintain relationships with referring providers and internal teams.
- Handle escalated or sensitive client interactions professionally.
- Adapt to changing priorities and provide team support as needed.

Qualifications:

- 1 to 3+ years of relevant experience.
- Strong interpersonal skills and emotional intelligence.
- Attention to detail and ability to manage high-volume documentation.

- Ability to balance compassion with performance expectations.

Pay range and compensation package: Starting hourly range between $28.85 to $31.25 for Admissions Coordinator. Final compensation offered will be based on qualifications and experience.
