🌟 We're Hiring: Communications Manager

📍 Location: United Arab Emirates (Remote)

🕒 Employment Type: Full-Time

💼 Level: Mid-Level – Senior Level

📊 About Us

We are a dynamic organization committed to building meaningful connections through clear, compelling, and strategic communications. Our teams collaborate across marketing, public relations, corporate affairs, human resources, executive leadership, customer success, product, legal, and operations to strengthen our brand reputation, engage stakeholders, and support business growth through impactful communication initiatives.

🎯 The Role

We are seeking an experienced Communications Manager to lead the organization's internal and external communications strategy. The ideal candidate will develop communication plans, manage corporate messaging, oversee media and stakeholder engagement, and ensure consistent brand voice across all communication channels while supporting organizational objectives and reputation management.

🚀 Key Responsibilities

• Develop and execute comprehensive internal and external communication strategies aligned with organizational objectives, brand positioning, and business priorities

• Create, review, and manage corporate communications including press releases, executive announcements, newsletters, speeches, presentations, reports, website content, and social media messaging

• Collaborate with marketing, public relations, human resources, executive leadership, legal, customer success, product, and operations teams to ensure consistent messaging across all communication channels

• Manage media relations by developing relationships with journalists, media outlets, industry influencers, and external stakeholders while coordinating interviews, media inquiries, and press events

• Develop executive communication materials including leadership messages, keynote presentations, board communications, and strategic announcements

• Monitor key performance indicators (KPIs) including media coverage, brand sentiment, audience engagement, communication reach, employee engagement, website traffic, and campaign effectiveness

• Lead crisis communication planning, issues management, reputation management, and communication response strategies to protect organizational reputation

• Ensure all communications comply with corporate branding guidelines, legal requirements, regulatory standards, and organizational communication policies
• Manage communication calendars, editorial planning, content approval workflows, agency partnerships, vendor relationships, and communication budgets
• Utilize content management systems (CMS), Customer Relationship Management (CRM) platforms, media monitoring tools, Microsoft Office Suite, Power BI, social media management platforms, and analytics tools to measure communication effectiveness
• Prepare communication performance reports, executive dashboards, stakeholder analyses, media summaries, and strategic recommendations for senior leadership
• Lead, mentor, and develop communications specialists, content creators, public relations professionals, and cross-functional project teams while fostering a culture of creativity, collaboration, transparency, accountability, and continuous improvement

✅ Requirements

• Bachelor's degree in Communications, Public Relations, Journalism, Marketing, Business Administration, English, or a related field preferred
• Master's degree (MBA, MA in Communications, Public Relations, or equivalent) or professional certifications in Corporate Communications, Public Relations, Digital Communications, or equivalent are advantageous
• 5+ years of experience in communications, corporate communications, public relations, media relations, content strategy, or related roles
• 2+ years of experience managing communication teams, corporate messaging, or strategic communication initiatives preferred
• Strong understanding of corporate communications, public relations, media engagement, executive communications, brand management, content strategy, crisis communications, and stakeholder engagement
• Experience with content management systems (CMS), Customer Relationship Management (CRM) platforms, media monitoring tools, Microsoft Office Suite, Power BI, social media management platforms, and business intelligence tools
• Familiarity with SEO, digital marketing, AI-powered content tools, reputation management platforms, internal communication technologies, and communication analytics is advantageous
• Strong leadership, strategic thinking, writing, editing, analytical, organizational, and problem-solving skills
• Excellent communication, presentation, stakeholder management, media relations, interpersonal, and cross-functional collaboration abilities

• Ability to develop impactful communication strategies that strengthen brand reputation, employee engagement, stakeholder trust, and organizational success
• Ability to work independently in a remote environment

🌟 What We Offer

• Fully remote work opportunity within the United Arab Emirates
• Competitive compensation package
• Professional development and communications leadership growth opportunities
• Exposure to corporate branding, executive communications, digital transformation, reputation management, and enterprise communication initiatives
• Flexible and collaborative work environment
• Supportive culture focused on innovation, creativity, collaboration, transparency, accountability, and continuous improvement
• Opportunity to shape organizational communications that strengthen brand reputation, engage stakeholders, and support long-term business growth
• Clear career progression within communications, public relations, corporate affairs, brand leadership, and executive management functions
