Electrical & Electronics Intern
Ji'nan, Shandong, China

About the job

Transport is at the core of modern society. Imagine using your expertise to shape sustainable transport and infrastructure solutions for the future. If you seek to make a difference on a global scale, working with next-gen technologies and the sharpest collaborative teams, then we could be a perfect match.

Responsibilities

What you will do

- Support SW engineer for SW release, to enter mapping document info into ESW release related system
- Prepare and carding SW release mapping document
- Support electrical engineer and system engineer regarding machine tuning and function check

Education/Professional Qualifications

- Read & Written English
- Good at structured and logically thinking
- Strong intuitive and analytic ability to resolve problem
- Open positive attitude, target oriented, flexible and enjoy working both independently and in groups in an outgoing and communicative way
- Major has not strictly limit, but engineering aspect is preferred
- Undergraduate and graduate students
- Internship duration: 3-6months, 3-5 days per week

We value your data privacy and therefore do not accept applications via mail.

Who We Are And What We Believe In

We are committed to shaping the future landscape of efficient, safe, and sustainable transport solutions. Fulfilling our mission creates countless career opportunities for talents across the group's leading brands and entities.

Applying to this job offers you the opportunity to join Volvo Group. Every day, you will be working with some of the sharpest and most creative brains in our field to be able to leave our society in better shape for the next generation. We are passionate about what we do, and we thrive on teamwork. We are almost 100,000 people united around the world by a culture of care, inclusiveness, and empowerment.

Part of Volvo Group, Volvo Construction Equipment is a global company driven by our purpose to build the world we want to live in. Together we develop and deliver solutions for a cleaner, smarter, and more connected world. By unleashing everyone’s full potential, we build a more sustainable future for all our stakeholders. Come join our team and help us build a better tomorrow.