Executive Coach

FocalPoint Business Coaching - Australia

Company Description

FocalPoint Business Coaching - Australia is part of the world's premier business and executive coaching group, founded by Brian Tracy, a world renowned business authority. Headquartered in Canada and operating globally for over 2 decades, FocalPoint has around 300 coaches worldwide and employs a holistic approach and proven systems to support leadership development, strategic planning, team engagement, business profitability, and strategic exit planning. FocalPoint is committed to helping clients achieve measurable success and long-lasting growth.

Opportunity Description

This is an Australian based flexible Business & Executive Coaching opportunity. You will be trained, Certified and fully supported by Focal Point International and the Australian based Focal Point leadership team to establish and grow your own independent coaching practice under our global brand here in Australia.

With our extensive content, training and long-term personalised support, you will be responsible for developing your client base, providing professional executive coaching, executive management guidance and business coaching programs to clients.

You will be a confident self-starter, have an entrepreneurial outlook, know what it's like to lead, and be driven to succeed. We make no apologies that we are not seeking average, but are looking for the best.

Qualifications and Characteristics::

- Strong interpersonal and communication skills
- At least 15 years of strong business experience in the corporate world or as a business owner
- You will value independence and the freedom to be in control of your time
- You have the right to work in Australia or have a firm intention and taken initial steps to relocate to Australia