Food and Beverage Assistant
Ellesmere Port, England, United Kingdom

About the job

Would you like to join Europe's leading premium health and wellness group?

Our team members are the ambassadors of our business and the heart of what we do. W e are on the look out for a passionate Food and Beverage Assistant to join our team!

The Club Room is the hub of our clubs where our members expect quality, healthy meals and exceptional service in a comfortable environment where they can work, relax or socialise with friends and family."

As a Food and Beverage Assistant , your role is key to ensure we giv e our members excellent service every day, 7 days a week.""

We create an environment where our teams feel a sense of belonging, an environment where they can thrive, both physically and mentally whilst fulfilling their full potential.

Some Of Our Perks

- Free Club Membership for you and your family!
- Discount on food and drinks.
- Discounts on Swimming, Tennis Lessons, and Personal Training.
- Opportunities for Career Advancement through internal training and development.
- Wagestream App : Get paid on demand !
- Access to our Benefits Suite .

About You

As a Food and Beverage Assistant we are looking for someone who is:

- A team player, with the ability to work in a fast-paced environment
- Can show a genuine passion when engaging with individuals
- Strong listening and collaboration skills
- Previous hospitality experience

- An emergency response qualification is desirable but not essential.

Join us and help us create a thriving and inclusive culture . Together, we're m ore than a C lub!