About the job

Freelance Transcriber (Remote)

Please note: This is an external application.

Do you have excellent listening skills and strong attention to detail? Confident working with audio content in English?

We're looking for Freelance Transcribers to join our growing team at Dals!

As a transcriber, you'll provide live remote transcription, and your work will support essential sectors such as healthcare, legal, public services, and community support.

What will you do?

- Provide live remote transcription for hearings by joining sessions via Microsoft Teams
- Producing real-time, highly accurate, full verbatim transcripts
- Maintain high linguistic quality under time pressure
- Produce accurate legal/hearing transcripts within a strict 5 working day turnaround from the end of each hearing, in line with contractual SLA requirements
- Availability for scheduled hearings (often time-sensitive)
- Your personal equipment required
- Ability to record hearings where required, including: GDPR-compliant handling and secure storage and confirmed destruction post-assignment

What We're Looking For:

✔ Excellent command of English and/or other languages

✔ Strong listening and comprehension skills

✔ Fast and accurate typing

✔ High attention to detail

✔ Ability to follow instructions and formatting rules

✔ Right to work

✔ Previous transcription experience is an advantage

✔Extra accreditations are more than welcome: BIVR, NCRA or other recognized legal transcription, court reporting, or stenography qualifications.
