Graphic Designer
Agra, Uttar Pradesh, India

About the job

Company Description Circus Brand Communications Agra is a full-service agency offering end-to-end branding, advertising, and digital marketing solutions to help businesses grow. The team works across logo design, packaging, SEO, and social media promotions to build cohesive brand identities. The agency focuses on delivering creative, impactful campaigns that connect with audiences both online and offline. Professionals joining Circus Brand Communications can expect a collaborative environment where strategic thinking and design excellence drive every project.
Role Description The Graphic Designer will work on a full-time, on-site basis at Circus Brand Communications in Agra. Day-to-day responsibilities include creating visual concepts for branding and advertising campaigns, designing logos, packaging, social media creatives, and marketing collateral for print and digital platforms. The role involves collaborating with copywriters, marketing strategists, and account managers to translate brand guidelines into compelling visual assets. The Graphic Designer will refine designs based on feedback, prepare files for production, and ensure consistency of brand identity across all touchpoints. The position also requires staying updated on design trends and best practices to enhance campaign effectiveness.
