Media Sales Executive
THE GULF FOCUS · United Arab Emirates (On-site)

About the job

Company Description THE GULF FOCUS is a digital infotainment channel and media production company serving audiences across the United Arab Emirates and the broader Gulf region. The organization creates engaging, multi-format content that blends information and entertainment for diverse viewers. By combining digital platforms with professional production capabilities, THE GULF FOCUS aims to deliver high-quality programming and branded content. Team members collaborate across creative, technical, and commercial functions to support a dynamic, fast-paced media environment.

Role Description The Media Sales Executive role is a full-time, on-site position based in the United Arab Emirates. The person in this role will identify and pursue new advertising and sponsorship opportunities across the channel's digital and media properties, building and maintaining strong relationships with clients and agencies. Day-to-day tasks include prospecting and cold outreach, preparing sales pitches and proposals, negotiating rates and packages, and closing media deals aligned with revenue targets. The Media Sales Executive will coordinate with production and content teams to develop tailored media solutions, ensure campaign delivery, and monitor performance. This role also involves maintaining accurate sales records, forecasting pipeline, and staying informed about market trends, competitor activity, and audience insights.
