Production Industrialisation Specialist
Decathlon

About the job

- Be responsible for the manufacturing of the prototypes and participate in the setting up of the technical file
- Be a key contact between Product Engineer in headquarters and local Suppliers, assuring all products are developed in accordance with design and specification requirements as detailed by Brand while maintaining a concept on performance
- Optimize the development cost of the products
- Coordinate the development and industrialization of the project plan
- Ensure and optimize the manufacturing organization : Efficiency improvement, SMV reduction, consumption optimization etc.
- Manage the continuous improvement in my activity Qualifications
- Experience in Garments merchandising/Industrial Engineering for at least 2-5 years (Max)
- Punctual, organized, detailed, fast learning, and customer service mindset
- Dynamic, open-minded, creative, and positive personality
- Should be mobile & Love to be on-the-field and to work at the production site almost every day
- English communication and interpersonal skills with all levels of business
- Ability to make a decision and take responsibility for any action
- Passionate about sports and inspire others to celebrate together If you are interested & requirement is matching with you , plz share your resume.

Desired Skills and Experience

TEXTILE, Gsheet, EXCEL, Bachelor degree, Industry