Voice Artist (Arabic)
Crossing Hurdles · Bangladesh (Remote)

About the job
Position: Audio Annotation Trainer - Arabic
Type: Contract
Compensation: Pay per task ($30 - $120 per task)
Location: Remote
Commitment: Part-time (1 - 2 days/week)

Role Responsibilities

Perform high-quality audio annotations and voice recordings in Arabic across various domains
Interpret scripts and deliver voice outputs with accurate tone, emotion, pacing, and clarity
Record voice-overs from a professional home studio or in-studio setup
Ensure consistency and quality in speech, pronunciation, and delivery
Review and revise recordings based on feedback and project requirements
Deliver high-quality audio files on time and in the required format
Collaborate with internal teams to improve annotation quality and training data

Requirements

Previous experience in voice acting or audio-related projects
Strong vocal control, clarity, versatility, and emotional range in Arabic
Ability to interpret scripts and follow creative direction
Ability to follow instructions and meet deadlines in a fast-paced environment
Access to high-quality recording equipment for remote work
Basic familiarity with audio tools and recording processes
Part-time availability

Preferred Qualifications

Experience with dubbing, ADR, or localization
Demo reel showcasing a variety of voice styles
Background in acting or performing arts
Familiarity with audio editing tools

Desired Skills and Experience
Dubbing