Dynamics Consultant and CRM/Power Platform Developer Lead

Position: CFSA - Dynamics Consultant and CRM/Power Platform Developer Lead (Senior) (804967)

Location : Washington DC, 20003

Interview : Webcam Only

Work : Remote (Need locals)

CONTRACT JOB DESCRIPTION

Applicants must have strong analytical skills and business vision to be able to add value to our program staffs by driving projects and delivering solid Dynamics CRM/365 solutions. They should also have experience integrating external systems with Dynamics 365, planning and implementing solutions to address organizational requirement, and successfully maintaining the program staff relationship throughout the duration of the project lifecycle.
The ideal candidate will be able to work both independently and as part of a team of consultants to provide these services and will have the following skills/capabilities:

• Skilled in Azure AD, Azure App Services, API development, Portals, Azure Data Lakes/Warehouses
• Expertise in Custom Workflow Activity, Plugin (C#), Power Automate, JavaScript, HTML, PowerApps Portals, Canvas Apps and Power Platform development
• Interact with clients to understand complex business requirements and develop wireframes/mockups
• Create functional requirement and design for customizations
• Accurately estimate level of effort for implementation tasks
• Installation, setup and configuration of Dynamics 365, associated Apps
• Create technical documentation of client Dynamics 365 environments
• Review developer proposed implementation and identify efficient designs
• Work with Delivery architects, Technical Leads and developers to ensure access and security profiles meet the needs of the Agency, including verifying that the policies/restrictions in place.
• Advise on complex business cases and propose comprehensive solutions utilizing 3rd party applications and extending Dynamics 365 with customizations
• Collaborate with Delivery architects, Technical Leads and developers to perform code reviews to ensure that the solutions is aligned to pre-defined architecture/design or Microsoft recommended best practices for Power Platform
• Understanding of Microsoft Dataverse
• Excellent written and oral English communication and presentation skills.

Minimum Education/Certification Requirements:

Bachelor’s degree in IT or related field or equivalent experienceApplicants must have strong analytical skills and business vision to be able to add value to our program staffs by driving projects and delivering solid Dynamics CRM/365 solutions. They should also have experience integrating external systems with Dynamics 365, planning and implementing solutions to address organizational requirement, and successfully maintaining the program staff relationship throughout the duration of the project lifecycle.
The ideal candidate will be able to work both independently and as part of a team of consultants to provide these services and will have the following skills/capabilities:

• Skilled in Azure AD, Azure App Services, API development, Portals, Azure Data Lakes/Warehouses
• Expertise in Custom Workflow Activity, Plugin (C#), Power Automate, JavaScript, HTML, PowerApps Portals, Canvas Apps and Power Platform development
• Interact with clients to understand complex business requirements and develop wireframes/mockups
• Create functional requirement and design for customizations
• Accurately estimate level of effort for implementation tasks
• Installation, setup and configuration of Dynamics ...