[HIRING] Part-Time Operations & Content Coordinator for Health Education Business ($250/month)

I'm looking for a reliable, detail-oriented contractor to support a growing online health education business focused on helping people manage chronic kidney disease.

Compensation

- $250/month
- Approximately 5 hours/week
- Fully remote
- Flexible schedule

Responsibilities

- Review and approve Facebook Group membership requests
- Collect member names and emails and enter them into Google Sheets
- Schedule Facebook content using pre-written content and SOPs
- Create and schedule TikTok posts from existing content assets
- Perform basic community management and moderation
- Follow documented processes and checklists

Ideal Candidate

- Strong written English
- Highly organized and detail-oriented
- Comfortable with Google Sheets
- Comfortable learning new software tools
- Able to follow SOPs consistently
- Experience with social media scheduling is a plus
- Experience as a virtual assistant or operations assistant is a plus

This is not a customer support or sales role.

Most tasks are repetitive, process-driven, and documented. I'm looking for someone dependable who enjoys keeping things organized and making sure nothing falls through the cracks.

To apply, send me:

1. A brief introduction
2. Your relevant experience
3. Your timezone
4. Why you'd be a good fit for this role
5. The word "kidney" somewhere in your application so I know you read the full post
