[HIRING] Remote Administrative Assistant | Fully Remote | $25–35/hr | Dublin, Ireland

We are currently looking for a Remote Administrative Assistant to join our team on a part-time basis. This is a fully remote position supporting day-to-day administrative and operational processes within a small international team.

The role involves maintaining and organizing internal documentation, updating spreadsheets and records, coordinating routine administrative tasks, tracking project progress, preparing basic reports, and helping ensure that internal workflows remain organized and up to date. The position is well suited to someone who is detail-oriented, reliable, and comfortable working independently in a remote environment.

Applicants should have good written English, strong organizational skills, attention to detail, and confidence using common online tools such as Google Workspace or Microsoft Office. Previous experience in administration, virtual assistance, customer support, operations, or project coordination is helpful but not required.

This is a paid remote position averaging 15–20 hours per week with flexible scheduling. Compensation ranges from $25–35 per hour depending on experience and qualifications.

Location of hiring company: Dublin, Ireland.

If interested, please send a brief introduction describing your background, availability, and any relevant experience.